MANILLA SPANIARDS

Declaim Against Denial of Right of Suffrage.

MEETING OF LEGISLATIVE CHAMBER

Surrender of Five Hundred Insurgents in the Island of Samar—Protection of Minor Posts Still Necessary.

Manilla, July 26.—The first meeting of the legislative chamber was largely attended. Commissioner Wright, speaking of the charter of Manilla, said the same reasons that controlled in making Washington the federal city obtained in Manilla; and Washington, he declared, was the best governed city in the world.

Representatives of the Spanish chamber of commerce vehemently opposed the charter, asserting that it was inconsistent with the principles of the freest government on earth to deny the right of suffrage to the residents of the metropolis while granting it to those of other localities. They also declared that the proposed system of government for Manilla was far less liberal than that offered by the Spanish authorities, who proposed to make the representatives of the districts in Manilla elective by the people.

General Hughes cabled the news of the first surrender of insurgents in the island of Samar, 500 men with two field guns, 30 rifles and 70 bolos, giving themselves up to the authorities.

The opinion prevails among the United States officers that it will take years to accomplish the economic program of General Corbin. The civil and educational authorities hold that a continuance of the protection over minor posts is necessary aside from that afforded by the constabulary. It is generally expected that the concentration will be more general than is anticipated in Washington.

Baptist Young People.

Chicago, July 26.—Owing to the fact that the annual election of officers would take some of the session, the Young People's Baptist union convention began at 8:30 a. m. The feature of the day was the address by Rev. G. C. Campbell Morgan of London, called by many the successor of the Evangelist Moody. Other addresses, all on religious subjects, were made by Prof. C. L. Williams of Granville, O., and Rev. W. Weeks of Toronto, Canada; the "Open Parliament," the topic being the Young People's movement in the light of ten years' organized effort, was participated in by the delegates generally. Officers were elected as follows: President, John C. Hayman; treasurer, H. H. Clissold, both Chicago; recording secretary, H. W. Reed, Toronto; vice presidents, W. W. Main, representing the north; W. W. Week, representing Canada, and W. W. Gaines, representing the south.

Lemley Selected.

Washington, July 26.—Secretary Long formally announced that he had selected Captain Samuel C. Lemley, the law officer of the navy department, to be judge advocate of the Schley court of inquiry. Captain Lemley has accepted the detail. Up to noon Secretary Long had not heard from Rear Admiral Kimberly, who is reported to have sent a letter to him explaining that the state of his health would hardly permit him to act as a member of the court. Hope is still expressed at the navy department that the indisposition from which the admiral is reported to be suffering will only be temporary and that he will be able to serve. The percept to the court which was prepared by Captain Lemley as the judge advocate general of the department, has been completed and has gone to the public printer.

Kennan Ordered Out.

St. Petersburg, July 26.—A high Russian police officer called upon Mr. George Kennan, the American author and lecturer, at his hotel Tuesday evening and informed him he must leave the country by 10 o'clock this (Friday) evening. Mr. Kennan was not allowed to leave his room in the interim, but was courteously treated. This action by the Russian authorities is taken under the law giving the minister power to expel undesirable foreigners. The notice served upon Mr. Kennan characterized him as unworthy politically. Mr. Kennan has informed the United States minister to Russia, Charles Tower, of this action of the Russian authorities, but has not asked Mr. Tower to intervene in the matter.

Edward's Title.

London, July 26.—In the house of Lords Lord Salisbury, the premier, introduced a bill to authorize King Edward to assume by proclamation within six months of the adoption of the bill, such title as he may think fitly recognizes his dominion beyond the seas. The premier added this title would probably be as follows: "Edward the Seventh, by the grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, of British dominions beyond the sea, King, Defender of the Faith, and Emperor of India."

FOSBURG TRIAL.

Jury Instructed to Bring in a Verdict of Not Guilty.

Pittsfield, Mass., July 26.—At the opening of court in the Fosburg trial, Judge Stevens instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of not guilty, and this was done, ending the trial.

The jurymen did not leave their seats. The verdict was received with shouts of applause, which the court immediately suppressed. The demonstration, however, was one of the most remarkable that has occurred in a court of justice.

Robert Stewart Fosburg the defendant, was then ordered to stand while the foreman of the jury was asked, "What is your verdict?" The reply was "not guilty."

Judge Stevens then in a few words expressed his thanks to the jurymen for their careful consideration of the case during its presentation to them. Young Robert Fosburg was then discharged from custody and court was adjourned. The great crowd then rushed as one person to shake the hand of the young man, and it was several minutes before the courtroom was cleared.

Fosburg Murder Suspect.

Washington, July 26.—A man claiming to be James Gray, formerly of Union Pier, Mich., and Chicago, was arrested here on suspicion of being implicated in the Fosburg murder at Pittsfield, Mass. Gray just stepped out of jail after having served 15 days for stealing a hat from a hotel when arrested. Affidavits secured by Chief of Detectives Titus of New York from women there charge a man named Gray with committing a burglary and shooting a woman about the same time and in the same vicinity as the Fosburg tragedy occurred. Detective Captain Boardman learned three days ago that Gray was taking an unusual interest in its discussion. Gray told detectives he was from Indianapolis, but authorities there have no trace of him. Friday he said his father lived there and he himself had lived at Union Pier, then went to Chicago and later was employed on a railroad at Cumberland, Md.

Must Train For Years.

London, July 26.—On the occasion of the supper given by the American society in London to the crews of the University of Pennsylvania and the Leander Rowing club, Vivian Nickalls, the English oarsman, protesting against the exclusion of foreigners from Henley as unsportsmanlike, said: "As for American crews, with their style and system of rowing, of which I have seen a lot lately in the United States, I do not think they will win for some years yet, but the American university oarsmen are every bit as good amateurs as the best of ours."

Feeding the West.

Philadelphia, July 26.—Large orders for fruit and produce have been received by local dealers from the sections of the middle west which have been stricken by drought. This demand has been larger during the past two weeks, veterans in the produce market say, than ever before in the history of the business in Philadelphia. Over a hundred carloads of vegetables and fruits have been shipped during the past fortnight from this city to points in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and to sections lying southerly from these states in the Mississippi valley.

No Hope For Relief.

Washington, July 26.—No promise of permanent or general relief in the drought-stricken corn belt is held out by the weather bureau. Advice received from all parts of the western country indicate no general change in the weather conditions that have existed now for weeks. Scattered thunderstorms are reported throughout the corn states, but the weather bureau holds no hope for relief of the heated term.

Cigarmakers Strike.

Tampa, Fla., July 26.—A general cigarmakers' strike was officially declared here at noon. This is a strike of all La Resistencia workmen, about 5,000 in number, because the International union men were at work in three factories.

Ammonia Tank Exploded.

Memphis, Tenn., July 26.—About 2 p. m., the ammonia tank at the Memphis Ice company's factory exploded, wrecking the works. Engineer John Smith was instantly killed and a stranger named Harrington fatally injured.

John Arnold, a prominent farmer of Hoover's Gap, Tenn., was found dead on the roadside with a double load of buckshot in his back.

ANXIOUSLY AWAITING

Confirmation of the Latest Report From Peking.

NO WORD FROM MINISTER ROCKHILL.

Rumor That the Disagreement of the Ministers Over Customs Tax to Be Imposed to Meet War Indemnity Has Been Adjusted.

Washington, July 26.—The authorities here are anxiously awaiting the confirmation of the latest report from Peking to the effect that the deadlock of the ministers there as to the customs tax to be imposed to meet the indemnity has been broken. So far Mr. Rockhill has not been heard from, although it is now recalled that in a dispatch received a few days ago, he expressed a belief that an agreement was in sight.

The few representatives of the embassies and legations remaining in Washington also are showing great interest in the report and Acting Secretary Hill is being called on for information by them. It may be significant that the inquiries from this source tend to show that their own information from their respective foreign offices reveals the existence of a strong line of division between the powers respecting this question of customs rates, Great Britain and Germany being arrayed against France and Russia.

Mail Clerk Arrested.

Indianapolis, July 26.—F. M. Smallwood, living at 1717 Park avenue, this city, a clerk in the railway mail service, was arrested at the Union station charged with taking money from the mails. The arrest was made by Postoffice Inspectors Holmes and Fletcher. Smallwood was on what is known as the Pittsburg run. He went east on No. 20 Pennsylvania train and back on No. 15. Smallwood, after arrest, admitted his guilt. Mail matter that had been stolen had been found on his person. Before Commissioner Moores his bail was fixed at $2,000. Inspector Fletcher says Smallwood has been rifling letters for three years. He is about 45 years and has been in the service many years.

Gigantic Swindle.

St. Paul, Minn., July 26.—A Helena, Mont., special says Senator W. A. Clark has filed in the United States court at Butte his answer to the suit by the government to vitiate his title to about 15,000 acres of timber land in western Montana on the grounds that the lands were secured from the government through a gigantic swindle, and in connection with which the federal grand jury recently returned 102 indictments. Clark, in brief, avers that he is an innocent purchaser and as such must be protected. The lands are valued at half a million dollars.

Army of Home-seekers.

El Reno, O. T., July 26.—This was the last day of registration for home-seekers. For 16 days the town has been running at high pressure, and it is estimated that fully 150,000 strangers have been accommodated here in that time. The crowd is gradually dwindling away. Registration will close at 6 p. m. in accordance with President McKinley's proclamation. The total registration for 15 days for both the El Reno and Lawton districts is 161,496. It is now estimated that the grand total at the close tonight will be about 170,000.

Russian Ship Canal.

Washington, July 25.—Consul Kehl, at Stettin, reports that operations have been begun on the proposed ship canal between St. Petersburg and the White sea. The naval port of Cronstadt (the entrance to St. Petersburg) is to be connected with the new naval harbor of Sorotska, on the White sea, by a canal of sufficient breadth and depth to admit the passage of Russia's largest cruisers. The extreme depth will be 31 feet while the water surface will have a breadth of 200 feet. The length of the canal will be about 602 miles.

The Yellow Peril.

Paris, July 26.—M. Pichon, former minister to China, and who is now in Paris, in an interview urged the consideration of the Chinese because he believed a policy of violence would lead to even more serious uprisings than the recent troubles. M. Pichon said he did not believe in an immediate "yellow peril," as he thought it would be a long time before the Chinese became dangerous to Europe. Referring to Japan, he said, that was another matter and that their progress inspired him with anxiety.

Davenport Scorched.

Davenport, Ia., July 26.—Fire early Friday morning devastated a district a mile square and caused a loss of $800,000. A relief movement was inaugurated at a mass meeting of citizens and measures taken to care for the homeless and destitute. Between 200 and 300 lost their all and are homeless. Ten firemen were prostrated, and one, Emil Lucht, received serious burns. The loss of the Weyerhouser and Denkmann company was $500,000; insurance $300,000.

HAS A DARK SIDE.

Presentation of Medals to Returned British Yeomanry.

London, July 26.—King Edward presented medals to 3,000 returned yeomanry at the Horseguards parade today. The ceremonial was the same as observed at the former presentation of medals, but the inclement weather robbed the function of its brilliancy. Queen Alexandra and Prince Edward, son of the Duke of Cornwall and York, were present.

Considerable comment has been aroused by the refusal of 32 noncommissioned officers and men to attend the ceremony, on the ground that their pay was in arrears. These men have addressed letters to King Edward pointing out that they cannot submit to be decorated while their wives and families and some of their number are starving. The claims of the men who say they have not yet been paid vary from £63 to £127. Some of the claimants allege that they have had to pawn their earlier medals in order to procure food for their families.

Spanish Captain's Opinion.

New York, July 26.—Captain Eulate, who commanded the Vizcaya at Santiago, in a cabled reply to a request from the Journal and Advertiser as to his opinion of Rear Admiral Schley's maneuvers in the battle of Santiago, says: "As a gentleman, I cannot appreciate any maneuver of the Brooklyn in the battle on the third of July in front of Santiago as an act of cowardice, because, although the Brooklyn went to port when the Teresa, with Admiral Cervera aboard, tried to ram him, and afterward when I, in the Vizcaya, also steered toward him, he further fell off 22 degrees, this maneuver, considering the position of the other American ships which were attacking the Vizcaya by the stern and quarter, was a proper one."

Nervous Trouble Leads to Suicide.

San Francisco, July 26.—Lloyd Tevis Breckinridge, grandson on the paternal side of the late Vice President Breckinridge, and grandson on the maternal side of the late Lloyd Tevis, president of the Wells-Fargo express company, committed suicide at the family home in this city, where he lived with his grandmother and uncle, Dr. Harry Tevis. A rubber tube leading from the gas jet to the bed where the body was found told the story of his death. Despondency due to nervous trouble from which the young man had suffered for years led to the suicide. His mother is in Paris with her daughter, Miss Florence Breckinridge, and has been cabled of the death of her son.

Armored Cruisers.

Philadelphia, July 26.—The keel of the armored cruiser Pennsylvania, the first vessel of the new navy to be named after the state in which nearly all the more modern vessels were built, has been laid at the yard of the William Cramp Ship and Engine Building company. The cruiser will have a speed second only to the Varag, the Russian cruiser, and the fastest afloat. A sister to the Pennsylvania, the armored cruiser Colorado, will be built later by the Cramps.

Garment Workers' Strike Settled.

New York, July 26.—General Secretary White of the United Garment Workers of America, announced that the strike of his fellow craftsmen was practically ended, except in the cases of several firms against whom the workers have grievance. White said the strikers would refuse to deal with some of the smaller firms until they comply with the demands for improved sanitary conditions. The strike affected about 70,000 workers.

Brooklyn Bridge Open.

New York, July 26.—Brooklyn bridge was opened to general traffic Friday morning. A large force of workmen was kept going all through the night and at 6:30 o'clock the repairs to the last break were finished. A police order at once opened the bridge to cars, teams and foot passengers. Traffic was very light, even through the rush hours of the morning, for public confidence had not yet been restored.

German Tariff Law.

Berlin, July 26.—The Reichsanzeiger publishes a draft of the new customs tariff law and the customs rates. The bill stipulates that in any new commercial treaties entered into by Germany the duties shall not be lower than 5 marks on rye, 5½ marks on wheat, 3 marks on barley, and 5 marks on oats.

Liverpool, July 26.—The White Line Star steamer Celtic left here for New York on her maiden voyage. She carries 250 saloon and 150 second and 350 steerage passengers.

CENTER OF INTEREST

Is McKeesport In the Great Strike of Steel Works rs.

COOPER REPLIES TO MAYOR BLACK.

Massmeeting of Union Men Called Off—Amalgamated Officials Have Heard of no Changes in the Situation.

Pittsburg, July 26.—McKeesport was again the center of interest in the great steel strike. Intense excitement prevailed there over the fact that many guards have been sent into the Demmler tin plate mills and the report that arrangements had been completed to start the works with nonunion men on Monday. It was said that inasmuch as the men had struck in spite of the scale agreement, the company was through with the Amalgamated association and would resume as soon as men could be secured. Percy Donner, manager of the Monessen plant, known as a successful strike-breaker, was in consultation with the Demmler people and it was said that he was to take charge of the mill. So ominous was the situation Friday morning, the Rev. Stuart Sharp hurried to this city to beg the tin plate company officials not to attempt to start the mills as bloodshed would surely follow. The situation at the Dewese Wood plant also became more interesting when at 10 a. m. the management of the works announced the intention to start the nonunion plant within a few days and that the police department of McKeesport would be looked to to protect the new workmen.

Manager Samuel M. Cooper of the Wood plant, after a lengthy conference with head officials of the company in Pittsburg, made a statement partly in reply to the edict issued by Mayor Black of McKeesport Wednesday that the company would get no assistance from the McKeesport police department should they decide to start the plant. Mr. Cooper said:

"We are going to start up within the next few days and we will look to the authorities of McKeesport for assistance. Should our men be interfered with we will insist on the police of McKeesport doing their duty. If Mayor Black should carry out the lines he has laid down in his statement we will sue him and the city of McKeesport, for the W. Dewese Wood people are heavy taxpayers to the city and must be protected."

Mr. Cooper intimated quite strongly that the mills would be run strictly nonunion and that no Amalgamated people would hereafter be employed in the W. Dewese Wood plant. He said he had been given to understand that the Demmler plant would also be opened at the same time. "I understand that the National Tube works men will be called out. I cannot help this, we will open our mill."

Saturday will be pay day and the strikers will receive their wages for the time worked before the strike.

The giant mass meeting of union men which was to have been held on the public square has been called off. The leaders of the Amalgamated association fear that they will be unable to keep such a crowd of men in check, and fear that a riot might be precipitated that would cost the association the sympathy of the general public.

At the Amalgamated offices, the officers of the association said they had heard of no changes of importance in the strike at any point. The reports concerning alleged move on the unorganized men of the Duquesne mills of the Carnegie company were not credited in the Amalgamated headquarters.

Joined the Association.

Pittsburg, July 26.—A McKeesport, Pa., dispatch says the present indications are that the employees of the National Tube company of McKeesport will go out on a strike either Saturday or next week. The majority of the employees have joined the Amalgamated association, and though they were advanced on July 1, they propose to strike to uphold the association.

Philadelphia, July 26.—The total production of pig iron in the first half of 1901 was 7,674,613 gross tons, against 7,642,569 tons in the first half of 1900, and 6,146,673 tons in the second half. Indications now point to a decreased production in the second half of 1901 as compared with the first half.

Put In For Repairs.

Honolulu, July 19, via San Francisco, July 26.—The army transport Buford put in here for repairs. She was on her way from San Francisco to Manilla, but three days ago her low pressure eccentric was found to be badly damaged. She will remain here until repairs are made.

ALL the investigations that may be had concerning the naval fight at Santiago won't elucidate the fact that Sampson was there.

If the New York World spoke of Taylor as "a miserable fugitive from justice," as reported, it looks like a back-handed kind of sympathy, to say the least.

"NO MATTER what the naval investigation may uncover, it can't make Sampson conspicuous for anything but absence at the Santiago fight," truthfully remarks a writer.

SHOULD the vampires succeed in besmirching the fame of Schley, which it is very plain they are after, it is not easy to see how it will add anything of fame to Sampson, as he wasn't in sight of the Santiago fight.

IN THE ROCKIES.

Interesting Letter From a Maysville Lady
About Some of the Grand Scenery
Out in Colorado.

MADISON, NEB., July, 1901.

Dear: We arrived in Madison Tuesday eve about ten o'clock, the train being two hours late from Columbus. I suppose you would like to hear about our trip to the Rockies, and I don't know how to begin. I believe we wrote you about going over to Manitou on Saturday. It is about six miles from the Springs and there are electric cars over and they only collect three fares each way. They do bleed the pocketbook.

There are three springs—sulphur, iron and soda. We went to the iron. There is a pavilion around the spring and good music. The water is free, unless it is carried away. Then they have beautiful polished stones and curios for sale, which one in buying fondly imagines comes from the surrounding mountains, but which in reality come from Mexico and Arizona. We were told, or a great many of them do. The cog road to Pike's Peak was from near Manitou. There are six large hotels and many beautiful residences and grounds. They build so much with the red and gray sandstone of the mountains and the beauty of the buildings must be seen to be appreciated. The yards are left in their natural wild beauty of bushes and boulders, streams running among the rocks, until you wish you could never forget each scene.

The tourists are everywhere. A strange lady and I walked part of the way up the mountain. You would round a point or boulder and come upon perhaps two children or a whole family, perhaps a party of ladies and gentlemen, etc. Then farther on would be some sitting around a camp table with a group off in the bushes with their work, and again some one just putting up his tent. And the kodak fiend everywhere. Well, the next morning one of the boarders and I went to church, and that afternoon we and two other ladies went for a drive over to Manitou and Williams Canon and home by the Garden of the Gods. We stopped this time at Soda Springs, the waters of which are very fine. We could not drink much of the iron. Then on to the canon which is grand. The roads are narrow, with wall of solid rock rising hundreds of feet on each side.

The Rocky Mountain drivers understand driving as well as the Rough Riders do riding for you meet many carriages in the narrow road, but they always manage to pass; sometimes it looks as if the wheels would lock. The Cave of the Winds is at the head of this canon, but we did not go in as some had told us it was disappointing. The drive to Glen Eyrie is included in this, but they do not let you drive through on Sunday. It is a millionaire's residence and said to be very fine. We next drove through the Garden of the Gods. The interest of this place is the curious formation of the rocks which are very wonderful. You see the bee hive toad stools with toads sitting upon. Punch and Judy, the Kissing Camels, Lion Heads, Sea Lions and Bears, the Baggage Room and many others, I suppose, I have forgotten. The Balance Rock is here which they have had to cement to keep balanced as it was crumbling. The rocks are mostly red sandstone, some of which are very crumbly. The entrance is very fine, being mountains of rock with driveway between. We stopped on our way home at another house, where they keep more curios, some of petrified wood with crystals inside the log and an Indian, who must have been a good Indian as they say "the only good Indian is a dead Indian," and he had been a long time dead, being petrified. We had seen enough to want to see more and they told us of the beauties of Cheyenne Mountains and North Canon and Seven Falls, so we engaged the same driver to come for us Monday morning. By the way I forgot to tell you the tradition how the Garden of the Gods came to be so named. After seeing it I was no longer puzzled about the name as I had been, for I could see the images looking like idols and gods. The driver said it was so called because the Ute Indians often came to the springs to drink of the strong waters and worshiped the images in the garden. Monday morning we drove to Cheyenne Mountain about six miles off.

Ethan wanted us to go to North Canon, promising to meet us there, but the driver insisted that we would like South Canon best, as Seven Falls was at the head of that. It is private grounds and they charge 25 cts. entrance. The walls rise 1,000 feet on either side and then you come to a more open space where the mountains are covered with the most beautiful pine trees. You cannot see enough soil in the rock for them to take hold. The canon is about fifteen miles long; at the head are Seven Falls, which is seven distinct falls turning this way and that. There are steps leading to the top. I do not know how high falls are, probably 800 feet, judging by surrounding mountains. They keep many burros to climb the mountains. There was a white one here that is said to be forty-one years old. He was used by the U. S. Signal Corps on Pike's Peak twenty-two years ago. He is spoken of by Helen H. Hunt in her writings. Is the oldest known burro and the most faithful. He is used entirely now by tourists. He was pointed out by our driver as Helen Hunt's burro. But I hear that tourists are told many impossible stories. He showed us the mountain on which was Helen Hunt's grave. She was buried on top of the mountain and a heap of stones piled over, and the stones are there yet, but the remains have been removed to the cemetery at the Springs. We left South Canon and went part way into the North, which is four and a half or five miles in length and so beautiful and wonderful that you almost dread leaving it all behind. You see so many people, all looking so happy and care free, only bent on seeing and enjoying. I could not help thinking of some of my tired friends at home fretting over the mole hills and wishing they could see these people intent on climbing the real mountains. We drove some distance into North Canon when we came in sight of a figure sitting alone upon a rock, hat off and comfortable. It was Ethan, as we soon saw, who then got into the carriage with us. He pointed out the places of interest to us. On the way back we drove around by way of Broad Moor, which is a pretty suburb with club house and pleasure grounds. Ethan called our attention to a place where the water ran up hill. It is an optical illusion, I suppose you would call it.

In looking back toward the mountain it seems you are ascending a steep hill, which is not so steep they tell me. The water in the ditch runs along and it looks exactly like it was running up hill. You can scarcely believe it is not being pumped from somewhere. You see very little cultivation, one alfalfa field, some cherry trees and not more than one or two gardens. You see a good many cattle, some chickens. They live off the tourists and the miners. Cripple Creek is about thirty miles to the east and is 3,000 feet higher than the Springs, and is about the richest gold mines in the world. Mr. Stratton who first discovered the mines there was a poor man, a prospector and is well on the way to billions they tell us. He lives at the Springs. He took $15,000,000 out of one of them and then sold it for $11,000,000. He does not know how to enjoy it. His wife got tired of his prospecting and left him and then wanted to come back after he struck it so rich, but he would not have her back, but provides for her. They tell us there are twenty-five or thirty millionaires in Colorado Springs. We passed a beautiful place, the home of Mr. Bacon. The house was built of the red stone and the grounds were beautifully laid out. Trees and fountains, a stream ran through; was walled and bridged with the rough stone. They let the wild scenery alone and do not try to civilize it altogether. One cannot describe it all. I think the Buffalo trip would be tame now.

We were well and hearty all the time, though the altitude and water are apt to affect one after a few days. We left on the 1:21 train Monday and came on to Denver. It is grand, we said we did not wonder at the P.'s not liking Maysville after once living here. Took the 10:30 train that night and came to Columbus about half-past 3 the next afternoon. You will be tired reading this long letter, but supposed you would like to hear before I forgot how it looks. But no description will do justice to the mountains. No one can imagine it, even the pictures are not satisfactory after seeing the places. They are truly awe-inspiring. Then there is always a regret that you must leave it all.

AT RUGGLES.

Twenty-eighth Annual Camp Meeting at These Grounds Now In Session.
Delightful Place These Hot Days.

[Correspondence BULLETIN.]

RUGGLES CAMP GROUND, July 26th. The twenty-eighth annual Ruggles camp meeting opened Thursday. The interest has been not all that might be desired, but fair considering the hot weather. The preachers show commendable zeal and interest, and may their example be contagious! Services are held at 6, 9 and 10:30 in the morning and 1, 3 and 7 in the afternoon and evening. The preaching is spiritual and the singing is lively and cheerful. We are looking for a refreshing time at the hands of God.

The grounds are in fine shape,—beautiful to look upon with its green grass and fine shade trees. No better place could be selected for a few days rest and spiritual improvement. There is water in abundance brought up from the earth's depths, clear as crystal and cold as nature intends us to use. The nights are most enjoyable and covers and blankets must be kept at hand.

The board has placed twelve new gasoline lamps at different points over the grounds and we now have more light on the subject than in former days.

No rain, except a small sprinkle, has fallen for a week or ten days, consequently the sprinkling cart will be called into requisition to-morrow, (Saturday).

Several Maysvillians stopped off to-day on their way to the Springs. Mr. Frank Clark and wife, Mrs. Noyes and brother, Mr. Hord, and his son and Miss Cartmell were among the visitors who enjoyed the day at Ruggles.

An unusual number of ministers for the beginning of the meeting are in attendance. They are: Revs. L. B. Piesel, Jos. Faber and A. Boring, of Bellevue; G. R. Frenger, of Ashland; A. J. Bennett, of —; T. B. Stratton, of Maysville; E. L. Shepard, of Covington; J. S. Miller, of Vanceburg; D. P. Holt, of Dayton; V. T. Willis and M. A. Wallingford, of Tollesboro; Wm. Jones, of Foster.

Rev. T. C. Hilt will be present and preach Sunday and deliver his lecture on "Mormonism."

Be it said to their credit, we have a kind and obliging set of men renting the privileges. At the hotel they are giving satisfaction this year beyond expectation, and at the confectionery they are giving satisfaction for cash. The owners of dumb brutes may very safely trust them to the keeping of Geo. W. Dale, our efficient liveryman. May their tribe increase.

It would take a city directory to enumerate the population of the camp ground, so numerous have they become. There are tenters here from all points of the compass. Cincinnati, Covington, Newport, Dayton, Bellevue, Augusta, Maysville, Vanceburg, Tollesboro, Mt. Carmel, Rectorville and Burtonville are among the places represented.

A NOTE OF WARNING.

The young men that boarded so near the grounds last year must not repeat their actions of last year. If they do, they will suffer the consequences.

"HEARKEN YE"

To the Voice of Maysville People.

If you will but listen to your friends and neighbors they will tell you how the pains and aches of a bad back, the annoyance of urinary troubles, the nervousness, the restlessness that come from kidney ills, can be relieved and cured. Read what one Maysville citizen says:

Mrs. Philip Fist, of 129 East Fifth street, says: "Our son used Doan's Kidney Pills, sold at J. Jas Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets, with great benefit. He was troubled with a disturbed condition of his kidneys for a long time, evidenced by backache, brick dust sediment in the secretions and a tendency to inflammation of the bladder. The use of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills proved them to act up to the representation made for them."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. Foster-Millburn Co., N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

Miss Elizabeth Newdigate died Thursday at the County Infirmary.

Notice to Wheelmen.

There's positively no need to endure discomfort by reason of chafing, sunburn, insect stings, sore and perspiring feet or accidental bruises. You forget these troubles in using Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Infallible for pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and piles. Sold by J. J. Wood & Son; 25 cents.

Sincerity

SOME

Corset Truths!

When you buy a Corset isn't it a joy to find the kind that fits—just snugly enough, just comfortably enough? Corsets that fit from the day you put them on until the day you come back for another pair. All this is embodied in our P. N. Corset. We never offered a corset which has met with such a cordial reception. Sales climbing every day. Customers are the best advertisers. A woman buys a P. N. and tells a friend of its comfort and general satisfaction. She in turn buys one and tells a third and so it goes. There's solid merit in a P. N. There's economy and comfort. In a word there is more in a P. N. than women will appreciate than in any corset made.

Fine Coutille or batiste cut on a careful bias to give the corset straight front, rust proof boning, cork stay protectors—these are a few of the merits.

The Investment Company has taken its place as a permanent institution, and the prejudices that obstructed its early growth are disappearing in the light of experience in its workings. For many months the people of Mason County have been sending over $1,000 a month to be invested in companies at Lexington and other places. Now that we have a company at home whose plan is the latest and most approved, and whose managers are personally known to you as men of standing and integrity, why not put your investment with them? Patronize your home institution and your city and county will develop.

There is still a lingering prejudice in the minds of many people against the investment business. This arises largely from lack of information as to the real principles upon which the business is founded.

Our older citizens remember when the first building association was started in Maysville. There was a great deal of opposition to it, but it lived down the prejudice and was the forerunner of the three prosperous institutions of that kind in Maysville. The building association depends for its success entirely upon co-operation.

Life insurance was a rarity in Maysville in the preceding generation, but now it is difficult to find a man entirely uninsured, who is healthy enough to stand a medical examination.

Life insurance is run upon precisely the same principles as an investment company, but pays the profits to the dead man's estate. Our plan is open to the sick and feeble to whom life insurance is barred, as well as to the healthy and strong. Don't let prejudice stand in your way because the business is unfamiliar to you, but investigate for yourself, and you, like others, will be convinced. Call at our office or write to the

FOR MOTHERS.

The period immediately following child-birth is fraught with many dangers. The strength has been used in the painful ordeal through which the mother has passed and she finds herself helpless and weakened. Many mothers, like Mrs. Ford, date the beginning of their illness from the birth of their child. Indeed the frequent spectacle of a healthy young woman becoming a chronic invalid after motherhood is one of the tragedies of life. All this is unnecessary, when Wine of Cardui is obtainable. It rehabilitates the shattered nervous system, strengthens the organs and ligaments, and re-establishes a healthy, natural condition, saving years of chronic sickness and suffering. Wine of Cardui taken just before confinement will render the ordeal comparatively painless. It will re-enforce and strengthen the organs for their work. For every trying crisis in a woman's life, Wine of Cardui is the medicine to take. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui and take no substitute. If one is offered send $1.00 for a bottle to the Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn.

WINE OF CARDUI

Clarkson, Ark., July 20, 1899.
After my baby was born I took the whites and falling of the womb, and was in a very dangerous condition. I read one of your home treatment books, and commenced to treat myself with Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught. I am thankful for what the medicine did for me, and I am now in better health than I have been for a long time.

DUNKLEY DIES.

Another One of the Newport Boys Succumbs to the Injuries Received at This Point.

Charles Dunkley, one of the three Newport boys who was struck by a C. and O. freight train while asleep on the track near the Maysville depot a week or so ago, died Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Speers Hospital, Dayton.

His death was due to shock to the nervous system resulting from the amputation of his limb. There was very little hope for him from the beginning, as his heart was in a very bad condition.

The unfortunate lad was fourteen years of age. His parents were at his bedside when he expired. The remains were removed to the home of his parents in Newport for interment.

Elmer McCabe, the only survivor of the trio, whose leg was amputated near the thigh, is improving at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington.

The Y. M. C. A. will hold an outdoor service Sunday at 4 p. m. at the C. and O. depot. Leader, Mr. Hayes Thomas. Mr. Lee B. Gray will assist in the music with his clarinet. The public invited.

Trouble of a Minister.

To benefit others Rev. J. T. W. Vernon, of Hartwell, Ga., writes: "For a long time I had a running sore on my leg. I tried many remedies without benefit, until I used a bottle of Electric Bitters and a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which cured me sound and well." Sores, eruptions, boils, eczema, tetter, salt rheum show impure blood. Thousands have found in Electric Bitters a grand blood purifier that absolutely cures these troubles. Satisfaction is guaranteed or money refunded by J. Jas. Wood & Son. Large bottles only 50c.

Mr. William McClelland, of Lewisburg, received a telegram Friday afternoon stating that his brother, Mr. T. J. McClelland, had been overcome by the heat. He was better this morning, but still in a serious condition.

Master Charles Hancock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hancock, of this city, who are now visiting in North Liberty, O., had the misfortune to cut the second toe of one of his feet entirely off by dropping a hatchet on it a few days ago.

The brick layers finished their work on the new Catholic Church parsonage this morning. The rest of the work on the building will be pushed to completion and Father Jones will occupy his handsome new home early in the fall.

ELECTRIC RAILWAYS.

What an Ohio Paper Has To Say of the Lines Projected From Interior Points to Aberdeen.

[West Union Defender.]

"It never rains, but it pours." A few months ago when the maps for the various proposed electric railroads were published West Union was found far off the block lines thereon, but if the maps were to be revised at this time two and perhaps more of the lines representing electric roads would be discovered closely connected with the only county seat in Ohio without transportation lines.

The first line proposed was mentioned in the Defender a few weeks ago. It will run from Xenia to Wilmington, thence due south to Hillsboro, thence to West Union and the Ohio river at Aberdeen. The company has been incorporated at Columbus with a capital of $5,000. This is only a nominal sum and the capital when the time comes for it will be increased to $500,000, which will be furnished by Cleveland capitalists. A party will be at Xenia this week and will make a tour of inspection over the entire route from that place to the Ohio river.

We have it from good authority that the enterprise will be put right through and anyone who will look at the map, and consider the conditions that exist, will see that no better opening for a paying line offers in the State. The line is practically an extension of the Dayton and Springfield lines and will have traffic arrangements with each.

Another line called the Hillsboro and Ohio River Traction Company has been chartered with a capital stock of $10,000. Among the incorporators are A. Z. Blair, of this place; T. H. Hogsett, of Cleveland; H. M. Huggins and James M. Dornmott, of Hillsboro.

This company proposed to build a road from Hillsboro to West Union, Manchester to Aberdeen, and will be the connecting link to the proposed line from Columbus to Hillsboro and the line being built from Cincinnati to New Richmond, which will be extended to Aberdeen. The road chartered by Mr. Blair and associates, will hardly be built unless the two other lines are completed.

There are several other lines proposed which might strike West Union, but the citizens will be satisfied if one of them strikes us all by the "lonely." The citizens have been disappointed so many times by railroad propositions, that the statement that a half dozen lines striking the village causes little comment.

John W. Lane, of Carlisle, will hereafter draw $17 a month pension, having been granted an increase.

The youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. F. Dreel is ill with scarlet fever at the home of the family in the Sixth ward.

Mr. Charles Rudy has resigned his position as agent of the Standard Oil Company at Mt. Sterling and will return to Maysville.

You want to be right up in G if you are an Elk, and get one of those handsome pins and charms on sale at Ballenger's. Great variety, ranging from $1 to $80.

Thursday the wheat field of Representative Dave Bell, of Jessamine County, containing about 1,000 bushels, was destroyed by fire. It caught from a passing train.

The Advance says the people of Mt. Olivet and Robertson County will co-operate heartily in a move to build the proposed electric railroad from Maysville to that point.

Weather Prophet Marsh, of Cincinnati, says the terrible heat and drought will be broken by severe general storms, covering the greater portion of the country between July 28th and 31st.

During a storm in Montgomery County Thursday two fine barns belonging to Ennis Hainline were destroyed by lightning. The barns contained 500 bushels of wheat, farming implements, etc. Loss $2,500; insurance $500.

Bourbon News: "R. P. Stevenson, one of the leading horsemen and buyers of Pittsburg, bought of Dan Mitchell, of Carlisle, a pair of high-acting bay gelding, 15.3 hand high, for W. E. Curry, President of the Carnegie Steel Company. He also bought for the same party a pair of brown road horses from Mr. Mitchell. The price paid for the two teams was $5,000."

The Greenup Oil and Gas Company has been organized with a capital stock of $10,000, divided into one thousand shares of $10 each, and this stock is being rapidly subscribed for by the citizens. It is intended to drill enough wells to definitely settle the question as to whether Greenup County has mineral wealth. Leases have already been taken on a number of tracts of land. Those in a position to know claim that the geological formation of Greenup County is identical with that of Bath and other counties where oil has been found.
